

Tina Beer

It Works! Status
Ambassador Diamond

Home
California

Family
Husband, Ismael;
pets: Lucky, Chance,
Courage

Key to Success
If you want one year of prosperity, grow grain.
If you want 10 years of prosperity, grow trees. If you want 100 years of prosperity, grow people.

“WE ARE MAKING A
LIVING WHILE MAKING A DIFFERENCE.”

—Tina Beer

© Dolores Baluyut

Seizing the ‘Golden Ticket’

Tina Beer loves being able to make a living by making a difference.

by Nicole Bywater

Tina Beer joined It Works! three years ago with the idea of taking her life from just ‘good’ to ‘amazing.’ Before getting started in the network marketing industry nearly 13 years ago, she worked as a flight attendant.

Because of her experience in the industry, when she was introduced to It Works!, Tina knew that this was a company on a mission to significantly impact lives.

“All of the key components were in place and I knew with every fiber of my being that with the phenomenal leadership at the helm, It Works! Global would be a company that not only made history, but also changed history,” Tina recalls. “When all of the fundamental factors are in alignment and you seize an opportunity such as this, it truly is as if you’ve been given the ‘Golden Ticket.’ And there is just no limit to how large of an impact you can make when you see the gift that is presented to you.”

Financial Stability

While Tina still remembers the times her family found themselves with more ‘month’ than money, she’s grateful that they’re no longer in the realm of financial instability.

“I remember praying every month that we wouldn’t have any unexpected expenses arise because we simply just didn’t have the means to cover those costs,” she says. “Even minor things such as a flat tire or high electricity bill were huge burdens because we didn’t have extra. Every single dollar was spoken for every single month. Living in survival mode is both wearing and taxing on the soul.”

Today, Tina and her husband enjoy choices and options they only dreamed about prior to It Works!. They also appreciate being able to help others achieve that freedom, as well as using their blessings to help people in need.

“My husband and I are able to truly design our lives around our core values and what we hold the most important,” Tina says. “We are making a living while making a difference, and I really can’t think of anything more gratifying than that!” SIH

It Works! Accomplishments:

- ▶ Retired husband
- ▶ Able to bless and give back every single month
- ▶ Seeing the success of others